

Brazilian Mazurka : Luíz Gonzaga's

Comp. : Luiz Gonzaga (Brazil)

Disc. : Luiz Gonzaga

Notes : The Polish mazurka migrated to Brazil in the 19th century and seems to have settled there in distinct forms: in the South and in the Northeast. This one is from the Northeast, it is a song, and due to the usual mixed-up classifications, it is associated with the Forró dance. The lyrics are amusing; probably composed in the 1960s (it was released on a 1968 album), they already nostalgically portray the disappearance of the dance: "Mazurca, velha mazurca inda se dança no meu sertão" ("Mazurka, old mazurka, people still dance it in my backlands"). And at the end it leaves a message for us musicians: "Tocador que não for tocador perde o compasso e num toca mais não" ("A musician who isn't truly a musician loses the beat and never plays again"). Burn!
