

Mazurka : Sonny Brogan's

Comp. : Trad. Ireland

Disc. : Many, many paddies on Youtube

Notes : In Ireland, the mazurka dance survive only in county Donegal. Curiously, the tune is named after a Dublin accordionist who played with Ceoltóirí Chualann in the 1960s, so the connection to Donegal is unknown. Perhaps he helped spread it around the capital at a time when they were out of fashion.

♩ = 130

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 3/4 time signature. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a repeat sign and a first ending bracket labeled 'A' above it, with a 'D' chord above the first measure. The second staff continues the melody and includes a 'G' chord above the fourth measure and a first ending bracket labeled '1.' above it with a 'D' chord. The third staff starts with a second ending bracket labeled '2.' above it with a 'D' chord, followed by a section labeled 'B' above it. This section includes 'D', 'A', 'Bm', and 'G' chords. The fourth staff continues the melody with 'D', 'A', and 'G' chords, and ends with a first ending bracket labeled '1.' above it with a 'D' chord. The fifth staff begins with a second ending bracket labeled '2.' above it with a 'D' chord, followed by three measures of whole rests.
